

Circumcircle

The circle which passes through all three vertices of a given triangle is called its circumcircle. It is said to circumscribe the triangle.

The centre of the circumcircle is called the circumcentre of the triangle.

